Nomination details

Unless otherwise stated, judging is based on an assessment of outstanding contribution in the two (2) years leading up to Friday 9 October 2020.

Nominations should only be made in one category and the nominee must be nominated while they are living, however, the award can be awarded posthumously.

The nomination must include a supporting statement of up to 500 words that demonstrates the nominee's contributions and achievements in the selected category.

This statement should include:

- the nominee's name and achievements (past and present)

- details of the nominee's contributions towards promoting multiculturalism and increasing understanding of cultural diversity in South Australia

- information about the positive impact of the nominee's efforts in the community

- the number of years the nominee has been engaged in relevant activities

- other relevant achievements or evidence of public recognition

- other relevant current or previous positions held by the nominee

- examples of publication/s, article/s, broadcast/s or other relevant media content to support the nomination (Media Award category only).
